Message from Editor's desk

Dear members, associates and friends,

Season's greetings from DRCSC!

Apart from regular activities, we intend to spend some time to let our friends know about the current programmes, happenings, events of our organization through a medium that can communicate directly with a huge audience in a very short time. We will serve you updates accordingly with the progress of our work, new findings, new techniques. You also can share your ideas, activities and feedbacks too.

Hope your blessings.

In solidarity,

Editorial Team.

FEBRUARY 2015

GLIMPSES OF SHISHU MELA

DRCSC has organized Shishumela in the current year too in two of it's working areas—at Purandarpur, Birbhum and Pargumti, Kalitala of Hingalgunj, North 24 Parganas, by the support of Kolkata Trust of Human Development & IndienHilfe, E.V. Herrsching, Germany on 27-29 January 2015 and 4-6 February 2015 respectively.

Besides theme pavilion on child education, child rights, health & nutrition, there were stalls from government line departments like ADA, BLDO, ICDS, Child Line and NGOs. Stalls on handicrafts and food courts, toys corner were there. Local schools, Panchayats, Govt Officials, NGOs, Children and their guardian actively participated in the mela. Sit & draw competition, panel discussion, interactive corners on child rights, education and nutrition helped to create mass awareness on child labour and related issues. Contextual flexes had the role to disseminate the same.

Children from schools & community participated actively in the cultural programmes on each day.

In both the areas the Mela ended up with a small rally with a social message to ban child labour in society.
